AO 245B (Rev. 06/05) Judgment in a Criminal Case: Sheet 3 - Supervised Release

Defendant: LOIS TAWANDA HORACECase Number: 11-00243-005*SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of THREE (3) YEARS as to Count 5.

(X) Special Conditions: The Court imposed the following special conditions: the defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment and/or counseling, as directed by the Probation Office; the defendant shall make restitution to the Gulf Coast Claims Facility in the total amount of $12,100; to be paid jointly and severally with co-defendants Jeanette Brown, CR 11-00243-001 and Eddie Brown, CR 11-00243-010. Restitution is due immediately and payable in full, and is to be paid through the Clerk, U.S. District Court. If full restitution is not immediately paid, any amount owing during a period of incarceration shall be subject to payment through the Bureau of Prison's Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. The Probation Office shall pursue collection of any balance remaining at the time of release, in installments to commence no later than 30 days after the date of release. If restitution is to be paid in installments, the Court orders that the defendant make at least minimum monthly payments in the amount of $50; and, further orders that interest shall not accrue on this indebtedness. The defendant is ordered to notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's ability to pay restitution; the Probation Office shall request the Court to amend any payment schedule, if appropriate; the defendant is prohibited from making major purchases, incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without approval of the Probation Office, until such time as the financial obligations imposed by this order have been satisfied in full; the defendant shall provide the Probation Office access to any requested financial information; the defendant shall participate in the Location Monitoring Program for 120 consecutive days. During this time, the defendant shall remain at her place of residence at all times and shall not leave except when such leave is approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be monitored by a form of location monitoring as determined by the Probation Office. The defendant shall comply with location monitoring procedures specified by the Probation Office and abide by all associated technology requirements. The Court orders that the defendant not be required to pay the costs associated with such monitoring; and, the defendant shall perform 30 hours of community service work (involving environmental issues), as directed by the Probation Office. No fine was imposed.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

(X) The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment. The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (Probation Form 7a).

The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page (if applicable).

See Page 4 for the
